Divine Soul Download Now

The Divine has created a Light, being a Divine Soul expressing vibrant health and well-being in mind, body, emotions, and spirit, energetically and ethereally, physically and spiritually, mentally and emotionally. Align with the Divine blueprint for health or well-being, for vibrant living, and so we invite in this Divine Soul Light body to enter into this space and to download now into your Being now.

Divine Soul body download now,
Divine Soul Light body download now,
Divine Soul mind download now,
Divine Soul Spirit download now,

Transmit Divine healing blessing, direct from the Divine through this Divine Soul Light body now. Breathe, relaxed as this download indeed occurs. And now to integrate this new healing technology of the Divine moving forward. Beloved Maurice, the affirmation that you are encouraged to use is this;

Divine Soul's body heals me now.
Divine Soul mind heals me now.
Divine Soul spirit heals me now.
Divine Soul healing all around,
Divine Soul heals me now.
Divine Light heals me now.
Divine Forgiveness heals me now.
Divine Blessings heal me now.

Know that the Divine Soul healing energetic imprint has been installed upon your mind, body, and spirit. Now, to integrate this new technology, there is a learning process for your body, mind, and spirit, and so, through mantra, a form of meditation focusing upon the words you are speaking, you are able to integrate this

Divine healing body completely with your physical, spiritual, and mental form, uniting with the Divine blueprint for health and vibrant wellbeing.

Divine Soul's body heals me now.

Divine Soul mind heals me now.

Divine Soul spirit heals me now.

Divine Light Orb

Indeed, it is so, and indeed the healing will increase and amplify. As you work with this sort of affirmation, the download has been complete. Now call upon the healing power of this Divine Soul that is emerging with your being to remove blockages at the soul level. To assist in this as well, we call upon Divine Light Orb to surround you now completely and totally on every level of your being. With your mind's eye, your third eye, you may begin to see light swirling about: golden, Rainbow, healing light directly broadcast from the Divine that is all around you. To remove blockages, density, but ultimately to remove soul blockages, which are at the root of the health troubles which you speak of. You are required, of course, to fuel your physical body with healthy food, vegetable water, and to fuel your body with Divine Light, breathing in this Divine Light Orb that is all around, soothing mind, body, and spirit complex, releasing blockages on every level into the light and replacing them with unconditional love, vibrant wellbeing, compassion, healing, and love.

Indeed, it is so, and as you work with this healing energy of the Divine Soul that has been created in the image and likeness of God, to bring healing to the physical realm, for much is out of alignment. But this time, this magical time in which you are living, offers you the ability to completely release Soul blockages and know that the work you do with this now releases, along the lines of time, ancestral blockages and karma, as well as personal as well as on the collective scale for all of humanity as you serve and love. Indeed, you progress.

Healing Center

As for regarding your Healing Center. Understand that there is indeed a need and an opportunity for this in Cuddebackville, New York. Also, your wife, Nona, will play an intricate role, as she works to grow healthy foods in alignment with Mother Earth, for complete healing of mind, body spirit, as I mentioned before, includes mental through meditation, includes body through energetic healing and also through sustenance, nutrients what you feed your body is important, and in this way I'm seeing your Healing Center offering energy healing, but also offering healthy food in addition to medicine in the form of herbal remedies, whom you or your wife will attract someone with much knowledge in this regard to partner with in a way and of course, the healing energetically and at Soul Level.

What you are able to do for others is help them to remove blockages in spirit, in body, in mind; dense energy, stagnant energy, karmic residue through love, through light, and through forgiveness are able to be released over to the Divine, opening up new possibilities for vibrant, thriving, living.

The Healing Center's Mission

Your Healing Center's Mission, as it looks in the records of the Divine, is helping those who are in need of healing, but also offering education and knowledge about healing, prevention, nutrition, and well-being. Indeed, being a fool for God is your willingness to act upon the inner inspirations of your heart and soul, not to try to fit into the box or fit into a mold that society has laid out before you. The path which you are called to walk is unique and Divinely lined, so that your path will open up before you as you take action, and as you move forward. You cannot see the entire Divine path before you from your present vantage. This is why there must be a willingness to be a fool for God to move forward, as you are Divinely inspired and guided without knowing all the details, but trusting in the master plan; with this persistence, many blessings will come alone. I will say to you, beloved Maurice, there will be challenges on this path, of course, for you are doing something new, original, and innovative, but it looks as though the community will receive this Healing Center with open arms. There is even the possibility for outside aid, an investor of sorts, or a fellow spiritual being who wishes to serve as well, who can assist in some of the aspects.

Be open to receive help from the Divine, but stay focused upon serving, loving, and taking action, for this will pave the way, one step at a time. Your path will unfold before you as you move toward your goal: to serve humanity and to serve the Cuddebackville, New York, community. This indeed is in alignment with your Divine blueprint and with what you desire to accomplish. Through your service in the physical world, spiritual growth and healing—both personal and collective—will naturally unfold.

Divine Forgiveness Mantra

Working with the forgiveness mantra, Divine forgiveness, Divine forgiveness, and also with the Soul body, mind, and spirit, download of the Divine,

Divine Soul heals me now.

Divine Soul's body heals me now.

Divine Soul's spirit heals me now.

Will ease many burdens, and so this is why it is important for you to infuse your consciousness with these blessings, for consciousness is always creating, always creating; release worries as they come up, fears as they come up into the Light and re-focus upon what it is you desire and what you are creating. To infuse all of reality with the blessings of the Divine.

But it does look like the stars are lined, so to speak, for a new, comfortable home for you and your family. And while work and effort and action are required, your healing center will also come to be with focus, action, persistence and, of course, with infusing your reality with the blessings of the Divine, another mantra you may have already heard along the same lines: to heal body mind spirit, to heal the collective consciousness of humanity, to bring healing into your new home or Healing Center when they alone in your reality is simple. Repeat it often and over and over. “I love you”, feel the power behind these words.

I Love You Vibration

“I love you, I'm sorry for anything I may have done consciously or unconsciously to hurt you. Please forgive me. Thank you. I love you,

“I love you, I'm sorry for anything I may have done consciously or unconsciously to hurt you. Please forgive me. Thank you. I love you.

“I love you, I'm sorry for anything I may have done consciously or unconsciously to hurt you. Please forgive me. Thank you, I love you”

This opens your spiritual centers. This works to heal cosmic debts and stagnant energy in buildings, in people collectively and personally. Know that we in the angelic realm are pleased with your forward progress and momentum. Indeed, many of the blessings that are already a lining and soon to be a line in your life, such as home and Healing Center and property, are the reward we've spoken of for positive karma, for serving others unconditionally with love, with gratitude, and persistence.

As you continue to serve, you will continue to be rewarded, especially when you compound your service with the powerful force of forgiveness. Forgiveness from all whom you or your ancestors have ever harmed at any time or place, any level, consciously or unconsciously.

Forgiveness and offering forgiveness now, from your heart, to all Souls in all universes who have ever harmed you or any of your ancestors, family or friends, consciously or unconsciously, in this time or at any time.

Forgiveness releases the blockages that cause disease and illness. Forgiveness paves the way for new positive beginnings, personally and collectively, for all humanity. Forgiveness is an important mantra for removing the blockages which prohibit you from fully experiencing your oneness with all and, in addition, the practice of directly connecting to All-That-Is, which you may do, often by simply entering in, feeling your energy ground to the core of the earth, and here feels your connection with earth and with all.

“I AM” one with All-That-Is.

“I AM” one with the Divine,

“I AM” one with Divine healing.

“I AM” one with Divine forgiveness.

“I AM” one with all of life.

Feel this experience this, own this, for you are one, feel, know see hear, experience this now and now, this one Light, this One Source, this one energy which you are a part of, let it flow up, let it open the chakras of your physical body, let it warm your mind, body, and spirit, let it soothe pain or ill. Let it release Soul blockages completely from mind, body, and spirit, released into the light, and let this light flow up, and go with it, flow up with the light, into direct Presence, with Source and with All-That-Is. “I AM” directly connected to the infinite abundance of the universe. “I AM” Directly connected to the Divine healing and Love of God. “I AM” Love, go up, lifting up, and we now call upon Divine Healing Light to enter in. You may call upon Divine Healing Light at any time to work on your healing, to heal your family, or to heal and serve others.

It is call; Divine Healing Light is entering now, surrounding Maurice with this Purple Rainbow shimmer, Light Orb of healing goodness, direct energy of the Divine that has the ability to rearrange and realign all aspects of reality.

Remember that your physical body, your cells, are always regenerating, and so you do possess the inner and innate ability to self-heal with the assistance and guidance of the Divine Soul, which has downloaded into your energy. Being, Soul to heal, to uplift, to inspire.

Metatron call upon Universal Life-Force Energy, love, compassion, forgiveness and healing to take the place of any blockages.

Your cells are blossoming like individual flowers, purging that which no longer serves, purging blockages and density into the Light, so that you may illuminate to a new level and degree so that you may vibrantly shine the full Light that you are. I also wish to remind you to continue to work with the force of patience, persistence, and practice. All of life is an opportunity to progress and to learn. Remember that unpleasant service towards others will create negative karma in the form of obstacles, challenges, and struggle; forgiveness will ease the burden of karma that is collective for humanity and all Souls.

Forgiveness combined with service, love, desire to help Earth, help humanity, and help all Souls in all universes will create positive karma and line you with reward and opportunity a mantra.

“I AM” an Unconditional, Universal Servant

“I AM” one with all of life, “I AM” an unconditional, universal servant for all Souls in all universes. Feel the energy open up as I, Metatron, speak these words, for these words are backed with powerful frequency and truth, for you are, and this is the direct path that opens doors to opportunities that ease suffering and burdens, that allies you with the vibrant wellbeing that you desire and with the blessings and opportunities that the Divine has in store.

“I AM” connected and one with all of life. “I AM” an unconditional, universal servant of all Souls in all universes.

With love I serve with love, “I AM” connected to all, “I AM” a universal, unconditional servant of the Divine. And, Maurice, as you share your love and your heartfelt connection with the Divine, opportunity and reward will ensue, “I AM” one with all of life. “I AM” an unconditional, universal servant of Divine love, Divine forgiveness, Divine healing, and Divine Light.”

Now that, in this time and space together, a vortex has been opened, a link between you and the Divine, so that when you call upon Divine Healing Light, Divine forgiveness, when you call upon the Divine Soul to heal you and heal others, the Divine will respond always Divine Healing Light enter now, surround me, now uplift me now and open my mind's eye to see the Golden Light, Purple, Rainbow, Shimmery Healing Light Orb that serves you unconditionally, increasing frequency as you unconditionally serve as the Divine, universal servant of all Souls in all universes that you are.

Remember that I, Archangel Metatron, and add this as well, and ultimately, we are directly connected, for we are one, we are one Life-Force Light, consciousness which makes up all which serves all, and through love and service, healing, blessing, and well-being unfold. Know that your intention and your focus are key, even more than your feelings, when you connect with the universal light, energy, and healing, and do not feel anything. Do not fret in these cases.

This energy is flowing to the area of blockages, mixing in with the block, and so you feel nothing, for you are being protected from feeling the density of the blockage, which would ultimately lower you in vibration. And so when you are not feeling anything connected to this Universal Light, request Universal Light, Divine Healing Light, please release any and all Soul blockages which are present into the Light so that the Universal Life-Force Energy and Universal Light may stream in unhindered.

Universal Light heals me now.

Universal Soul heals me now,

Divine Soul, heal me now, for “I AM” an unconditional, universal servant of the Divine through Love, Forgiveness, and Compassion, and so it is.

You are so loved; applaud it and appreciate the work that you are doing so far. It is true, you have been blessed in this life, and your desire to give back is divinely allied and supported. But now, as you fully shift into serving and loving all Souls in all universes, your personal healing struggles will be eased.

Your personal lessons and obstacles and challenges will be overcome with service, forgiveness, and great love. The cornucopia of reward and Divine blessing will be bestowed upon you. Your path is neatly laid out before you, yes, but can only be seen one step at a time. I will walk with you. Call upon me, let us work together to serve and to love all Souls, all beings, unconditional, universal servants of Divine Light.
