Dedication Page

I wish to express my deepest gratitude to the Angelic Kingdom for helping me through my soul journey on Earth. It is important for me to acknowledge the teachings of the Masters of Wisdom within my Christ Self. I also offer special thanks to those who have served as channels for these sacred pages within this journal.

I open my heart to my many spiritual mentors who have helped me awaken the wisdom of my Soul. Special thanks to Natalie Glasson, Lea Chapin, Master Jesus, Saint Germain, Lord Melchizedek, Lord Maitreya, Archangel Gabriel, Archangel Michael, the Mighty Seven Elohim, Lord Orion, and the Angelic Kingdom.

To my beloved family of Light—both seen and unseen—you have walked beside me through every step of this journey. May this work serve as a beacon for all souls awakening to their Mighty “I AM Presence.”

Author's Note

This book was not written as a work of imagination, nor as a collection of borrowed teachings. It is the result of a living journey—one that unfolded through experience, prayer, and direct awareness of the Light.

From an early point in my life, I became aware of a Presence that did not come from the outer world. It did not announce itself in words, yet it was unmistakable. It moved quietly, often in moments of stillness, and at times in the presence of others, where a gentle but powerful energy would begin to flow. I did not understand it at first, but over time, I came to recognize it as the action of Divine Light.

The teachings within these pages are drawn from that unfolding. They are not presented as doctrine, but as lived experience—reflections of what has been seen, felt, and realized through years of walking this path.

The Light spoken of in this book is not distant. It is not reserved for a chosen few. It is present within all, waiting to be recognized, allowed, and expressed. The Master Jesus demonstrated this truth through His life, not as something beyond us, but as something to be awakened within us.

It is my hope that as you read these pages, you will not simply gather information, but come into a deeper awareness of that same Light within yourself. Take what resonates, set aside what does not, and allow your own experience to guide you.

This is not the end of a journey, but an invitation—an opening into the Living Teachings, and into the Light that is already present within you.

Rev. Maurice Ramsey

Chapter 1 — The Beginning of My Path

Before I understood anything about healing... before I understood anything about Spirit... there was something within me that I could not explain.

I did not grow up knowing what I would become. I did not grow up with titles, or teachings, or a clear understanding of what my life would be. Like anyone else, I lived my life one day at a time, learning, growing, and experiencing the world as it came to me.

But looking back now, I can see that something was always there.

There was a presence.

There was a quiet awareness that followed me, even in moments when I did not recognize it. At the time, I did not have the words for it. I did not try to define it. I simply lived with it.

As I grew, life moved forward as it does for everyone. There were responsibilities, experiences, and challenges that shaped who I was becoming. But beneath all of that, something deeper remained steady.

I did not understand it then.

But I feel it now.

This book is not something I set out to write as a teaching or as a guide. It is the unfolding of a life—my life—as it was lived, experienced, and revealed over time.

Everything that I share here comes from truth. Not from theory. Not from something I studied in books. But from what I have lived, what I have witnessed, and what has been given to me through experience.

There are moments in this book that may seem simple, and there are moments that may be difficult to understand. But each one is part of a path that was not forced, not planned, but allowed to unfold.

This is not about becoming something.

This is about recognizing what has always been there.

And as you read, I ask only one thing:

Do not try to understand everything at once.

Allow it.

Because the same way this path unfolded for me... something may begin to unfold for you.

“Before I understood the Light... the Light had already been around me.”

Chapter 2 — When I Was Told Who I Was

There was a time in my life when everything changed for me in a very quiet, but powerful way. I had a vision. In that vision, I was shown something that stayed with me—it wasn't long, it wasn't complicated, but it was clear. I was shown that I was a healer.

Now at that time, I was still young. I didn't have the understanding I have today. I didn't know what that really meant. But I knew what I felt. It wasn't imagination. It wasn't guessing. It was something that came over me with a sense of knowing.

And like a young person would do, I went and told my mother. I said to her, "Ma, I'm a healer." She laughed. Not because she was trying to hurt me. Not because she didn't love me. She laughed because, in her mind, I was still just her son—young, growing, figuring things out. What I was saying didn't fit into what she understood. But I remember that moment clearly. I didn't argue with her. I didn't try to prove anything. I just stood there and took it in.

And in that moment, something happened inside of me. I realized that what I had experienced... was not something I could just go around telling people. So, I kept it to myself. But I didn't forget it. That stayed with me.

Even as I grew older... even as life moved on... even when I got busy with everything else... that moment never left me.

And now, looking back, I understand something I didn't understand then. That wasn't the time for me to explain it. That was the time for me to receive it.

It was planted in me. And like anything that is real, it didn't need to be proven right away. It needed time.

Chapter 3 — Healing Began

After that vision, life did not suddenly change overnight. I still lived my life, I still grew up like any young man, and I still went through my days without fully understanding what had been given to me. But something had already been placed within me, and in time... it began to move.

I remember the first moments when I became aware of it. It didn't come with an announcement or a voice—it came as a feeling, a presence. There were times when I would be around people and something would begin to happen within me. It was not something I tried to create or force—it would just begin. I would feel a warmth, a movement, something building inside of me. And then I became aware that it was not just staying within me—it was moving outward through my hands.

When I was young, I did not look outside for anything. Everything came from within me. I did not understand it at the time—I simply knew it. Later in life, I came to realize that when I called upon my Heavenly Father for His perfect healing to work through me, it was not coming from somewhere far away. It was rising from within my own being.

I would feel it begin in my heart—alive, radiant, and full of presence. From there, it would expand outward, filling my body with Light. At times, I could also feel a beam of Light descending through the crown of my head, moving down through my spine into my heart, then flowing through my arms and outward into the palms of my hands as healing energy.

In those early days, I did not know that I had to ask or understand the process. But in time, it was revealed to me that this Light flows from the Great Central Sun, and that I am eternally connected to my Heavenly Father. There is no separation—what comes from above also lives within. Everything flows from the One, and that One lives within us.

At first, I didn't understand it, and I didn't question it either—I simply noticed it. I became aware that something was happening when I was around others, especially when they needed help, when they were not feeling well, or when something was off within them. I didn't need to be told what to do—I simply allowed it.

There was no technique, no system, and no learning from books. It was natural. As I stayed with it, I began to see something else: people would respond. They would feel something. Some would say they felt better, some would feel calm, and some would not understand what happened, but they knew something had changed. And I knew it wasn't me—that was the most important part. I was not doing anything in the way the world would understand doing—I was allowing something to move through me.

That same presence I had felt before, that same knowing, was now active. I didn't talk about it much, and I didn't go around telling people what was happening, because I had already learned that not everyone would understand. So, I kept it quiet. But I stayed aware, and the more I allowed it, the more natural it became. Looking back now, I understand something clearly: that vision was not just to tell me who I was—it was preparing me for this, the moment when what was within me would begin to express itself. Not in words... but in action.

*“There was no method...
no instruction...
only a Presence moving through me,
and I learned to let it flow.”*

Chapter 4— The Beginning of Healing

I was walking down the street in Middletown, New York, when something caught my attention. I saw a building, and the moment I looked at it, something came over me. I recognized it immediately. I had seen it before—not in the physical world, but in a vision. As I stood there, I also saw the man I had seen in that vision, a white man standing up the steps. I looked at him and, within myself, I said, “This is the man I saw.” I approached him and told him who I was. He listened, and then he said to me, “We’re having a healing meeting this Wednesday. Would you like to attend?” I said, “Yes, I would love to.” And that Wednesday, I returned.

There were about fifteen people there. He introduced me to the members, and they began asking questions. One of them asked me if I would do a healing. I said, “I don’t mind.” A person came forward and sat in a chair in the middle of the room, and I stood behind them and placed my hands over their head in a V formation. And that’s when it began. The people in the room could see something happening. They saw what looked like energy flowing from my hands into the person’s body, and they were amazed. But I didn’t see anything. I just allowed it to happen. From that moment on, word began to spread. People started coming. That small group of fifteen grew to forty-five, and at times there were so many people that they stood out in the hallway. The landlord of the building began to get upset, because it was an office building, not meant for large gatherings, so we had to find another location. For about three years, I continued doing healing there, and my name began to spread throughout the neighborhood.

Then something else happened. The Lord came to me again and told me to go to different churches—four different churches—and let the ministers know that I was a healer. So I went. The first church I went to was a Baptist church. I spoke to the minister and told him why I had come, and he said to me, “Christ did His healing a long time ago.” That was his answer. I went to another church, and the minister looked at me and told me to leave. “We don’t do that kind of healing here.” By the time I reached the third church, I was discouraged. I was ready to give up. Then I remembered another church, about ten miles outside of Middletown, so I drove there.

I met the man in charge. His name was Pat Boone. When I told him who I was and why I had come, he looked at me and said, “Our prayers have been answered.” He had been looking for a healer. He asked me, “When would you like to start?” I said, “Give me two weeks.” When I returned, everything was different. They had announced my name on the radio. This was not a small gathering—this was a large church, about five hundred people or more. I was nervous. Before the service, I went into a small room and prayed. I asked for calmness. I asked to be guided. When I stepped out, the music was playing, and the pastor introduced me: “This is Reverend Maurice Ramsey. He is a healer, and he is here today to help those in need.” I stood before the people and said, “I am Maurice Ramsey, and the Lord has come here to bless this church.” Then I said, “Let us begin with prayer.”

After the prayer, I said, “Who will be first?” And that’s when something happened. I saw a light over a person’s head. I pointed and said, “You come.” That’s how I knew who to call. One of the people who came forward was a young man, a soldier from Vietnam. His leg had been severely burned by a bomb, and he walked with a limp. He came forward slowly, but after the healing, he walked away differently. He ran out of that church like a normal young man. There were others as well—people who could not hear began to hear, and people who came in pain left with relief. Miracles were taking place that day.

There was a deacon in the church who played the piano. He had only a few months to live, and that was one of the reasons they had been praying for a healer. When I placed my hands near his head, he looked at me and said, “Thank you.” He knew something had happened, and the cancer went into remission. There was also something else. I had placed a container of water beside me, partially filled. At the end of the service, people began to say, “Look at the water!” It was full. I had not touched it, and I had not noticed it, but the people saw it. There were also those who came in troubled—disturbed in ways people did not fully understand—and during the healing, they were released from whatever had been holding them. People who knew them said, “Look at her... she’s completely different.”

That day was my first major experience of healing on a large scale. From that point on, my name spread throughout Orange County, and the work continued.

Chapter 5 — The Healing Expanded

I was invited to Jennifer Stone's Psychic Faire, about 9 years ago in Newburgh, N.Y. to hold an hour healing event called "Healing Session with the Angels." There was more than a hundred people who showed up for my healing and many more for the entire Faire. I was surprised to see so many people attending. At first they had me in a small room that held only about 30 people, meanwhile she had 10 other events going on at the same time. Their schedule for my event was late in the afternoon. Some of the other guest speakers were upset, because the room where people was drawn to my healing event had more people than it could take. Jennifer informed me that we should carry on the event outside and that they didn't expect so many people to show up at my hosting to the point they ran out of chairs and some people were even sitting on the grass while others just had to stand. Afterwards I was led to take in the people standing first.

I was cleaning auras, opening some individual's third eyes, people who had all kind of health problems were being healed. Jennifer came to me and stated "the hour is up", I felt bad many people was being left out for their healing, but then Jennifer looked at me and then she turned around and looked at the people, she said "you have a half hour more because I must close at 4:30 pm". Toward the end of the healing session my spiritual Guides informed me worry not, you do not need to lay your hands upon your brothers and sisters, just call to your "I AM Presence" with intent, those that are ready to be healed will be.

From that day forth all I need to do is open my heart and invoke my Father for him to channel his perfect healing energy through me. One never need to be in my presence, to receive God's healing miracles. The individual just needs to tune into my vibration and ask God, All-That-Is to heal you, and focus on his Love and Light and feel his energy flowing through your body healing you. All that is needed is your intention to be healed.

*“The healing no longer required touch...
only the call to the Presence.”*

Chapter 6

There came a moment when everything shifted within me. I began to understand that the healing was never coming from my hands alone. I no longer needed to touch in order for it to happen. All I had to do was open my heart and call upon the Presence, and the healing would reach those who were ready to receive it. It was not limited by distance, nor by physical contact. It moved through intention, through faith, and through the power of God's Love and Light. In that realization, I learned to trust completely, to step aside, and to allow the Presence to do the work, knowing that all that was needed was the willingness to receive.

“I knew it was my Heavenly Father doing His healing work through me.”

Chapter 7 — Bringing Hope

My Spiritual Mission to Bring Hope

Since I've been holding my free healing circles online here in the Philippines, many Filipinos come to me with a history of high blood pressure, kidney stones, stroke, lung cancer, depression, and other conditions. I have observed that much of this comes from poor diet—eating the baked skin and fat from roasted pig, using excessive salt, cooking with large amounts of MSG, and reusing cheap processed oil over and over again. Many do not realize that this continued use can clog the arteries and eventually lead to stroke.

Too many members of my wife's family, friends, and batchmates have died from one or more of these conditions. Many passed at a young age, ranging from their mid-forties to late fifties. This has deeply affected me. I have seen firsthand the pain and loss that comes from these health challenges.

In many cases, doctors do not have the time to fully educate their patients about long-term health. Instead, patients are often given medications and sent home, only for the same problems to return later. Sometimes they are told, "We're sorry, there's nothing more we can do." This is difficult to witness.

My vision is the empowerment of individuals in achieving good health, balance, and harmonious living. I believe people can learn to access their own inner healing abilities and begin to overcome their health challenges from within.

I bring hope through my healing sessions. Often, several treatments are needed, and the benefits emerge gradually. For some individuals, healing is obvious, while for others, the change occurs at a more subtle level. At times, spontaneous healing can occur during a session.

The Heart Diamond healing session often supports the speed and extent of recovery from serious illness, as well as from minor to major surgery. It can also assist individuals in coping with the effects of treatments such as chemotherapy and radiation therapy.

My purpose is to help people reconnect with the power within themselves—to awaken, to heal, and to live with greater strength, awareness, and hope.

“I saw the suffering... and I was called to bring hope.”

Chapter 8 - Awakening Within

Physical Healing and the Medical Profession

Day after day I witness individuals in their third and fourth stages of cancer on Facebook, while their family members and friends are sending prayers for a speedy recovery. I know the medical profession is doing their best to treat disease, but the individual should realize that the medical profession and Spiritual Practitioners should work together. Spiritual Practitioners complement and support the medical profession, especially before and after surgery, helping to speed recovery time and reduce hospital stays.

There are always alternative opportunities that can be offered through Spiritual Healing. Intuitively, spontaneously, gently, and effectively, Spiritual Healing works toward the source of a problem, illness, or injury. It is through the Divine energy source that healing energies are transmitted. Through the Masters, Angels, and spiritual wisdom, this energy is directed toward the body where it is needed.

The medical profession works on the physical body, seeking to repair it. The human body is an incredibly complex system created with profound self-healing capabilities. Medical professionals assist the body in its healing process. I am not promoting spiritual healing in place of medical care. Rather, I believe there should be a strong partnership between the two. Acts of kindness, compassion, and care—whether from a nurse, a loved one, or a prayer—can support healing in meaningful ways.

Physical healing does take place. It is one of the gifts of God to humanity. Spiritual Healing energy can support the body by encouraging its natural processes and helping restore balance at deeper levels of being. This is how my healing work is expressed.

The overall impact of a healing session is generally felt over time, though sometimes it may be experienced more immediately. Spiritual Healing sessions can support recovery from illness and surgery, and may help individuals cope with the effects of treatments such as chemotherapy and radiation. Many report feeling more stable, relaxed, and at peace. There can also be emotional release and a greater sense of calm when facing difficult conditions.

I believe Spiritual Practitioners can support the medical profession through insight, presence, and compassion, helping to bring more complete care to individuals and communities. I look forward to a time when both approaches work more closely together for the benefit of all.

At the same time, not every individual who seeks Spiritual Healing will experience the same results. There are many factors involved, including emotional and personal conditions such as unresolved anger, resentment, or the inability to forgive. These aspects can influence the overall healing process.

*“Everything I seek...
is already within me.
Even as a child, I knew it—my mother told me so.”*

Chapter 9 - Shadow Entities

There were times in my work when I encountered what I came to understand as shadow entities. I became popular after my healing in the church at Middletown, New York, and the miracle of the water rising in the glass. People were calling me and asking me to bless their homes, and if I could remove negative spirits from their family members. These places and individuals that were troubled were being helped.

I was traveling all over Orange County blessing, healing, cleansing, and removing negative energies from many homes, and it exhausted me considerably. The travel time alone would take one to two hours, and cleansing a home could take another one to two hours depending on the size. Sometimes my guides informed me not to go to a particular home. When I asked why, they said, “We are here to protect you, and they are not of the Light.” Even during some phone calls I was told to pass on certain situations, and I listened. Later I found that some of these individuals had long histories of harmful behavior, and that whatever I would do would only be temporary or not supported at all.

One story in particular began when my guides told me I should speak with the Thomas family who lived nearby. I had known them for about nine years, and they were good, caring people. Mr. Thomas was a doctor and Mrs. Thomas was a nurse. Their home needed a spiritual cleansing because there was a heavy negative presence affecting the household.

They had purchased their home years earlier, but over time they began to experience problems. There was anger, resentment, and constant arguments. Things went missing, and the children were upset and fighting with each other and their parents.

Mrs. Thomas shared that one night around 12:30 AM, she got up for water and saw a tall dark figure standing in the hallway. It appeared surprised that she could see it. She screamed, and it moved quickly toward the closet and seemed to pass through the door. When she opened it, nothing was there.

Before this, their children had spoken about seeing dark shapes moving in the hallway, but the parents thought it was imagination.

She told me she had the house blessed before, but had never experienced anything like this. I asked her if they spiritually cleansed themselves or asked for protection when coming home. She became frustrated, not understanding what I meant. I explained that I needed this information to help properly clear the home.

From my experience, negative energies tend to be drawn to environments filled with fear, anger, and stress. They tend to gather in areas that are dark or cluttered, such as basements or storage spaces. People can also carry heavy energy from other environments into their homes without realizing it.

Because of this, it is important to keep both the home and the personal energy field clear and uplifted. Practices such as prayer, intention, and maintaining a loving atmosphere help create a protective environment.

A simple practice is to pray for protection and invite Divine Light into your home. You can move through each room with intention, focusing on peace, love, and clarity. Afterward, you may also set the intention that only positive and uplifting energy may remain in your space.

Before leaving your home each day, ask for protection and guidance. At your workplace, take a moment to center yourself and bring in calm, positive energy. Surrounding yourself with light and intention helps maintain balance throughout the day.

It is important to remember that your state of mind and heart plays a major role. With intention, faith, and a focus on love, you can maintain a strong and peaceful environment.

I pray this message may help those who are experiencing difficulties in their homes or personal lives.

darkness cannot remain.”*

Chapter 10 - Ramsey Sees into the Future

Most people already believe in the Holy Spirit, but there are exceptions like Hector Rodriguez of Manhattan.

Although Rodriguez wasn't much of a believer in God, he went to Ramsey nearly seven years ago for a reading at his pregnant wife's urging. He met Ramsey a couple of years earlier through friends and was aware of his reputation.

Ramsey told Rodriguez his wife was pregnant and warned him to expect serious health problems with his newborn. But Ramsey assured him she—he predicted the gender too—would recover.

Rodriguez's daughter Cafega was born more than two months premature. Among other problems, she developed hydrocephalus, an accumulation of fluid in the brain. Doctors told Rodriguez Cafega could end up with cerebral palsy or mental retardation.

With the exception of a delay in walking, some trouble counting numbers in sequence, and a slightly drifting attention span, Cafega is a normal 6-year-old girl.

Rodriguez attributes her recovery to Ramsey's predictions and prayers.

"I'm a strong believer in God, stronger than ever before," Rodriguez said.

Ramsey only started exploring healing seriously about 20 years ago. Once he became a teenager, Ramsey started to suppress his healing ability and the brief flashes he had occasionally foreshadowing events in even a stranger's life. The visions were frightening sometimes. He would involuntarily see dark images of, say, a car wreck.

He grew up to be a carpenter by trade, and in 1977 he moved to Cuddebackville. A couple of years later his life was changed by an encounter he had with a voice and image he believed to be Jesus. He described Jesus' face as "white as a sheet." The voice encouraged him to open his eyes—not his physical eyes, but his spiritual eye.

The voice said, "You're a healer," Ramsey said. "I want you to bring healing to my generation." Seven other voices, he believed to be angels, reassured him they would be with him.

In this vision, he was shown a church too. He found the church—the United Spiritual Scientist Fellowship—accidentally as he was walking down Middletown's North Street days later. He started attending and eventually conducted healing services each Wednesday.

People flocked to the church and even his home. In 1990, he started Maurice's Healing Circle out of his home. Four years later, he added the garage for Maurice's Healing Circle Online. Inside the garage, a table with two vases of silk flowers, a round glass container of water, and three candles sit at the end opposite the door. A stool sits in front of the table, and a few stackable chairs are situated in a semi-circle.

Ramsey doesn't charge for healing, but he accepts donations. Gifts are determined by the visitor—whatever they can afford. The donation could be $1 or $100. The workshops on self-healing, spiritual development, and guardian angels that Ramsey holds mainly in the spring and summer range in cost from $10 to $65, depending on the length and intensity.

A few times the healing is instantaneous. Ramsey claimed that a young boy who walked with an obvious limp ran—free of limp—from the altar of the North Street Church. Some are not healed at all.

And he never advises that people abandon conventional medicine. Because he doesn't keep track of successes, he depends on feedback that may come in a phone call or letter from the people who believe he helped heal them. He doesn't keep track of the number of people he's seen or healed, but Ramsey estimates he has seen more than 3,000 people, excluding hundreds in churches.

"It takes a certain quality to be a healer. And that's love," Ramsey says. "This is a true love I have for my fellow man and I can't explain it."

Chapter 11 - A Short Story About Faith

I had given a card reading to a woman named Jessa at a beach house in Roxas City, Philippines, and because of that she made an appointment with me for a private healing session. At the time I was living in Roxas City while Jessa lived in Iloilo City, which is about a three-hour drive. She asked me if she could bring a friend with her, and I said, “Of course you can.”

A week later Jessa pulled up into the driveway, and I saw from the window that she looked tired from the long drive. After readying herself, she came up to the door and rang the doorbell, and I invited her inside. As she entered the house, Jessa looked at me, smiled, and said, “We made it.” I asked her where her friend Chrissy was, and all of a sudden she opened the door and came in smiling and yelling, “Thank you God, thank you God.”

I was surprised at her reaction, and when I looked closely at her, I saw a light around her, like an aura glowing a beautiful golden-white color. Chrissy said, “I am healed, I am healed, praise God, praise God, thank you God I am healed.” She told me that she had been praying all week for her healing, and that I was simply her point of contact for the blessing. She was not thanking me—she was giving thanks to God.

As soon as Chrissy stepped through the door, she received her healing. This was the first time I witnessed this kind of faith here in the Philippines.

Jessa looked at Chrissy and asked, “Are you really healed? You have no more pain?” Chrissy could only continue saying, “Praise God, praise God.”

I explained to them that it is our Heavenly Father who channels His healing energy, and that I am only a vessel through which His perfect work flows.

Jessa, who had brought her friend for healing, became upset because her friend received a healing and she did not receive the result she expected. By the end of her session, she had experienced some level of healing, but not the full healing she desired. The reason was that she was looking to me for healing instead of looking to God for her blessing.

She remained upset, and I tried to explain that I do not decide who is healed. I am only a channel for God’s healing energy. Afterward, I finished the session, blessed them, and thanked them for coming.

I AM Maurice Ramsey, Minister of the Light.

Chapter 12 - Resurrection Flame

Meaning of the Resurrection Flame
Channel by Natalie Glasson April 15, 1995

At this time, I ask that Maurice and I both be surrounded with light, with 100,000 angels, and with each of our highest and most loving, possible guides and angels of the light. Please come in, connect with us now, surround us with your energy of Divine Love, and assist us in opening our hearts to fully experience the Divine Love. At this time, I ask that the highest, most loving possible channeling guide for this reading, please come in and channel through me now.

Greetings! Indeed, dear one, we are here. We are the guides and angels with you in this now. We invite you to relax. Be still in mind and body. Calm yourself. Breathe in through your nose.

Begin to relax, to drift into a meditation, into a dream. Relax into this now moment, into your heart. Find your center, the place of connection to God, to Christ, to Source. Open your heart, and as you do, feel yourself integrating the light that is all around you.

Imagine at this time Golden Spirals of Light swirling around your body, your entire field. And when you're ready, take in a deep breath to breathe in this light, this Energy of the Divine, of Peace, of Hope, of Well-being, lifting you in vibration. Open your heart wider to fill your whole being with the divine frequency of love, with Christ consciousness, lift, relax.

Feel as though you are floating in a Golden pool of light. Tranquility and divine frequency all around you as you lift more and more. What you are experiencing now is not lifting out of the physical realm, but rather you are raising your vibration to a point where you can integrate your spiritual body, your essence, your higher self, and your true power.

The time in which you live is truly miraculous, as your full Christ Light, Christ Consciousness, is available to you. Unlimited growth is truly accessible to you in this now with your trust, with your faith, and with your willingness to release conscious thought and enter fully into your heart. We will validate, verify, and confirm for you in this now that yes, your experiences are valid.

And now the Resurrection Flame, I AM the Resurrection and the Life. What does this mean? We invite you to join us in visualizing, in imagining, to fully understand and experience the scope, the meaning of this powerful affirmation. The Resurrection Flame is also consciousness, energy, and light. It is powerful indeed. This is your tool, beloved one, to use, to rise above all limitation, all fear, and all doubt.

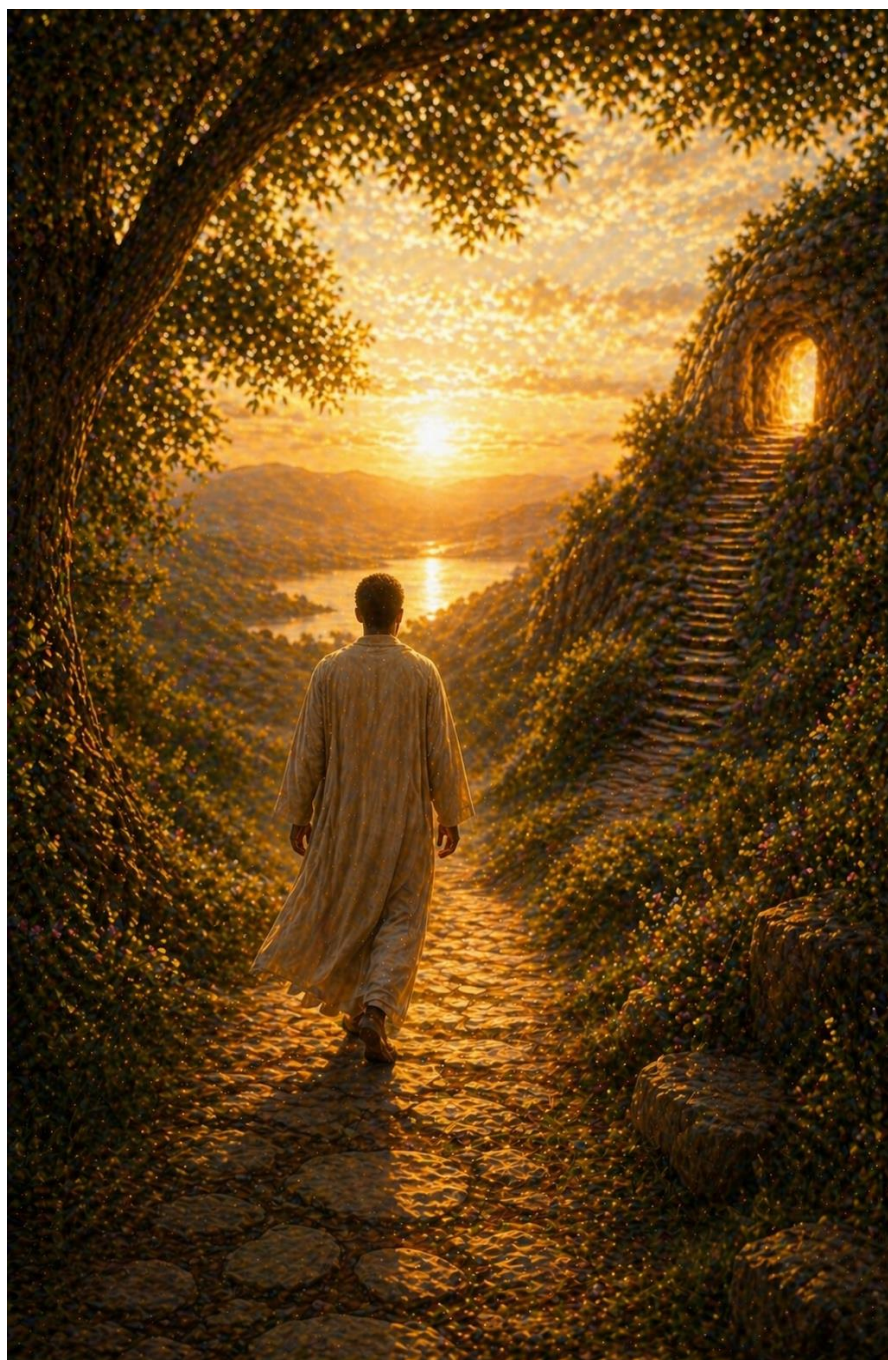

When you affirm, “I AM the Resurrection and the Life,” you are able to claim your power. Resurrection need not be death and then rebirth. Resurrection may be the process of enlightenment, the process of opening your heart to the divine and directly experiencing God, directly experiencing unconditional love. You are not separate from the Christ light. You are the Christ light.

Imagine that within your heart is the Resurrection Flame. You may see this flame growing within you as a Golden, Violet, and Silver Light. Imagine it burning brightly in your heart. This Resurrection Flame was used by Christ and is used by you now to transmute, to release fear, doubt, ego, and negativity. Breathe in to fuel this flame with life force energy.

Allow this flame to expand beyond your heart until your entire being is filled with light. You are not here simply to follow Christ, but to realize your own mastery. The teachings of Christ are valid and offer hope, but they must be lived and embodied. You are not separate from light. You are light. You are not separate from the Christ light. You are the Christ light.

The second coming is the awakening of the Christ light within you. Practice: Imagine the Resurrection Flame expanding from your heart, filling your body, your city, your country, and the entire earth. As you do this, you participate in the healing of humanity. Your belief activates this process. You are guided. You are supported. You are here for a purpose. You are not powerless. You are far greater than you realize.

Chapter 13 - The Living Light

Healing Transition through Resurrection

Channel by Lea Chapin 02/12/2026

Hi, Maurice, thank you for your payment. I'll go ahead and get started with my prayer. Father, Mother God, we call forth the highest frequency, the highest light for Maurice's soul growth. As always, Father, surround us with your loving protection, divine holy grace. As we invoke the energy of Archangel Michael and beloved Joshua as they step forward to bring their words of wisdom, healing, and guidance to this beloved soul. And as always, Father, surround us always with your beautiful light of healing. In this, we give our grace, and so it is.

Greetings, dear one. Yes, it is I, Christ. I stand with you, dear brother of the light. You must understand that at this time, you are going through a major transition on all levels and what is occurring will begin to allow you to move forward into your life. You are going into a deep healing on many levels, mentally, emotionally, physically, and spiritually.

And therefore, you must understand that that which no longer serves you will begin to fall away. And so your current health issues at this time will begin to clear up. I will place my hand over you and allow you to receive the healing that you need so that your body can return back to perfect wholeness and alignment.

Therefore, your body has gone through a great deal of misalignment, so to speak. But as I place my hand over you upon this day, your body will return back to perfect health and wholeness as you continue to call in the Resurrection Flame to resurrect your physical body, to resurrect your mental mind, to resurrect your emotional body, to resurrect your mental mind and all aspects of your being.

You are to understand that you are using it correctly and it is simply for you to have faith that the Resurrection Flame is regenerating you, recalibrating you, and realigning you to your divine perfection. Therefore, there is nothing to worry about or nothing to question.

Simply holding the intention and believing and trusting that you are receiving the Resurrection Flame from me, beloved Christ.

Your heart is open, your mind is true and therefore you are receiving the energies and the frequencies in the highest and purest form. Therefore, as you continue to call in the resurrection flame, your physical body will then begin to be aligned to the healing that is necessary and is needed.

Archangel Raphael, Archangel Gabriel, and Archangel Gabriel are all standing with you and sending healing to you on multiple levels. Therefore, you will begin to feel physically better and emotionally more solid within your own emotional nature, and you hold deep faith and commitment to trusting in miracles and miracles shall occur for you.

Therefore, know that you are protected and that you have many beings of light that are supporting you and that your body, mind, and spirit can return to the basic premise of being aligned on all levels. As to where you are to move at this time, you are to stay temporarily where you are, and within the next two months, the opportunity for a new home will occur for you.

Therefore, be patient for another couple of months, and then the doors will open for you for new living quarters to occur. But as I have said, you are undergoing a major transition of clearing out the old, making way for the new, and within the next two to three months, your whole life will begin to be resurrected and will be a new beginning.

By the first of May, you will be able to have the clarity and the opportunities that will come to you that will provide for you not only your basic needs, but your wants and desires. Therefore know and trust that you are in divine alignment and that there is no reason to feel unworthy to receive.

This is a matter of allowing yourself to clear your sense of unworthiness. We here wish to clear this thought form from you, to clear this emotion from you, to clear this belief from you so that you can begin to trust within yourself, honor yourself, love yourself, believe in yourself and trust that you are worthy to have all that you need.

Therefore, trust, surrender, trust, allow, and receive. Surrender, trust, allow, and receive. Like the beautiful star that you are, the acronym S-T-A-R, surrender, trust, allow, and receive. And therefore you shall begin to receive all that is yours and all that is meant for you.

As for your recurring dreams, there are unresolved emotions that you are trying to resolve. Continue to pray for forgiveness and ask for forgiveness. You still have some raw emotions of anger and unforgiveness. Therefore ask me to help you clear this and know that there is a soul contract that was for a limited time period.

We ask you to forgive, honor, and give gratitude. Continue to send healing and love, and your higher self and her higher self will work together to bring peace and understanding. As you clear your emotions, the karma can be complete and healed.

The key for you now is to surrender more and trust in the divine so that you can be in the flow of grace. Your life will fall into place with ease and grace. Your needs will come before you even know you need them.

Christ is saying that as you truly surrender, trust, allow, and receive, you are now in the vibrational frequency of divine grace. Everything will fall into place—your home, your health, your finances. There is no need to worry.

I Christ am here helping you in this incarnation so there can be greater comfort, peace, happiness, joy, and prosperity in your life. Know that all is in order as you prepare yourself to receive the abundance that is yours.

I see him surrounding you with white light. Archangel Michael places a blue shield of protection. Archangel Raphael, Gabriel, and Uriel are sending healing so your body, mind, and concerns can be healed and released.

Call upon me if you need guidance, but know that I am here, in your heart, always serving you. Trust, hold the faith, and go forward in peace. And we thank all the beings of light that are supporting Maurice at this time. We thank you Father, Mother God and we are grateful for this opportunity to serve. And so it is.

“I came to live in the Light that was always there.”

Chapter 14 — The Power of Forgiveness

Forgiveness is not a weakness, nor is it a single act performed once and forgotten. Forgiveness is a sacred spiritual practice and a living frequency that must be returned to daily, just as medicine is taken daily until the body is healed.

Before deep healing can take place—whether physical, emotional, or spiritual—the Law of Karma must be addressed. Forgiveness is the key that releases karmic blockages. Without forgiveness, healing may be delayed or incomplete.

What Forgiveness Truly Means

Forgiveness means releasing all resentment, guilt, anger, and judgment—consciously and unconsciously—toward yourself, others, ancestors, and situations from any time or place. It also means asking forgiveness for any harm you or your lineage may have caused.

Forgiveness clears energetic blockages that manifest as illness and opens the pathway for Divine Healing to flow freely through the body, mind, and soul.

Daily Forgiveness Practice

Forgiveness is not spoken once—it is practiced daily until healing is complete. As a doctor prescribes medicine to be taken daily, spiritual healing also requires consistency.

Sit quietly. Open your heart. Ground your energy into Mother Gaia, and feel your oneness with the Divine, and feel your connection with all life. Then affirm:

I AM one with the Divine.

I AM one with Divine Healing.

I AM one with Divine Forgiveness.
I AM one with all of Life.

Feel this truth. Experience it. Allow the Light to flow through your chakras, soothing pain, releasing illness, and dissolving soul blockages into the Light.

Forgiveness Song (5–10 minutes)

“Forgiveness, forgiveness, divine forgiveness.”

Repeat gently and allow the vibration to work within you. And YES, you will feel the vibration come upon you.

The Love Vibration (Repeat 3 Times)

“With my open heart, I conscious command. I love you, and I’m sorry for anything I may have done consciously or unconsciously to cause disorder and pain.

Please forgive me.

Thank you, I love you.”

This Forgiveness Song and The Love Vibration were given through Lord Metatron as a living practice of healing and release, to be used gently, consistently, and with trust in Divine timing.

*“When I chose to forgive...
I released what was holding me back and allowed healing to begin.”*

Chapter 15 - The Elixir of Life

Elixir of Life: Christ Healing Ray

Lea Chapin – 04-17-2026

A Sacred Ascension Prayer, given through Master Christ At the Beginning of My Path — Now Guiding Me into the Light

Hi, Maurice, thank you for allowing me to help assist you. Christ is going to take you through a healing visualization.

Yes, it is I, Master Christ. As I step forward into your energy field, I feel this power and this strength of the Living Light within you, what we call the Elixir of Life, the Vital life Force energy of the God essence that is held within your very soul, held within your very physicality. Held within all aspects of your being. So, simply begin to breathe. Breathe in the energy of the White Light of God.

Breathing in the energy of the White Light of God. Breathing in the energy of the White Light of God. Breathing in the energy of the White Light of God. Simply know that I am assisting you on your healing level, physically, mentally, emotionally, and energetically. And now at this time, I ask you to sit comfortably and allow yourself to feel this energy of as you allow me to help bring this transformational healing into your being.

As you begin to breathe, breathe in the energy of the Emerald Green Healing Flame of healing. So simply breathe. Breathe in the Elixir of Life. Breathe in the Emerald Green Healing Flame of healing. And as you breathe, begin to release any fears, any doubts, any tensions, any worries, and allow them to fall away as you begin to call forth the Healing Flame of God's Love upon your soul. For this gift of what we call the Elixir of Life, the Liquid Light, this gift from God, flows into every atomic and subatomic particle and wave of your being as it enters in through the core of every electron. It heals, restores, rejuvenates your physical being, your mental being, your emotional being, and all aspects of your being.

And so, continue to breathe and breathe in the Emerald Green Healing Flame of healing. Breathe in what we call the Liquid Light of the Holy Light of the Elixir of Life of God's essence. Breathe in deeply as you visualize the Emerald Green and Violet Flame of Healing through the Power of God's Love.

As you allow this healing to come through the top of your head and allow it to emerge now into every cell, every fiber, every pore of your being. As it flows through all of your chakra systems, your acupuncture meridian lines, and every electron, every cell. Allow it to heal, cleanse, purify, restore, and magnify every cell, organ, into your body, into vibrant health and wholeness. Visualize the Elixir of Life and the Emerald Green Healing Ray and Violet Flame as it moves through your body with grace and ease.

As it begins to begin healing to your physical brain your spinal cord your nervous system your entire chakra system your acupuncture meridians removing every trace of disease or imbalance of any kind and allow the healing flame to begin to heal all aspects of your being and then allow the Healing Flame to flow into your eyes removing every trace of disease or imbalance of any kind.

The Healing Flame restores your eyes to perfect sight, allowing to see and recognize perfection all of life and opening up your pineal pituitary gland and opening up your third eye, your psychic eye, so you may see all that is yours to see. Allow the healing to enter into your eyes and into your heart, into your throat, into your ears, continuing to remove and to release and heal all aspects of your being.

Healing your nostrils, your sinuses, your respiratory system, your lungs, your larynx, your vocal cords, your trachea, your bronchial tubes. Breathing in and releasing and clearing all aspects of your being so that you may speak your truth and feel the power of truth as it comes through your voice.

And allow the Healing Flame and the Elixir of Life to heal your mouth, your teeth, your gums, your tongue, your esophagus, your stomach, your liver, your gallbladder, your small and large intestines, your appendix, your colon, your kidneys, your bladder. And simply allow yourself to now receive the divine perfection and healing of what you call this Healing Flame and the Elixir of Life as I bring this energy to you and through you.

Allowing this beautiful Healing Flame to flow into your spiritual brain, into your pituitary, your pineal, your hypothalamus glands, into your intracranial system, your thyroid, your thymus, your pancreas, your spleen, your adrenals, all of your glands, all of your organs. Removing every trace of disease or imbalance of any kind. Allowing the Healing Flame, the Elixir of Life to restore you to Divine Holy Perfection.

Simply allow this Healing Flame to enter into your circulatory system and your lymphatic system, your lymph nodes and your lymphatic fluid. Allow it to flow to the muscles of your heart, to your veins, your arteries, your capillaries, your red and white blood cells, your bone marrow. Begin to heal any emotions that you may have that are causing disease or imbalance of any kind. Allowing the Healing Flame to restore and power your feelings with Divine Love.

As you begin to call in this Divine Love into the chamber of your heart, healing any distortions of imbalance within your heart and allowing the energy now to heal on all levels. The Healing Flame, the Elixir of Life, restores every aspect of your being, transforming and healing and clearing and allowing your body to remain perfect and whole as it begins to continue to heal all aspects of your being, your skeletal system, your muscular system, your endocrine system, your circulatory system, your limbic system, your autonomic nervous system, your parasympathetic system, truly beginning to allow the Elixir of Life to heal you on all levels, allowing the Healing Flame to flood your body with strength and eternal youth.

Allowing this beautiful Emerald Green and Violet Healing Flame, along with the Elixir of Life, to continue to bring healing to every electron, atom, cell, within your body. Continuing to bring this energy of healing, so that you find this expansion of your life to be an expression of God. For you are the Divine Perfection of God. As all energy comes from God, everything within you is pulsating the divine energy of the God essence. For your life, your energy is responding instantly to Divine Love, to the love of God. Through the Heart Flame, through your physical body, you are the expression of light.

Therefore, you are the light of the world. Your Heart Flame expresses love, and you are the love of the world. And as you begin to call forth these frequencies, may the balance of the divine masculine feminine polarities within you begin to be healed. So may you return to oneness and to feel the energy of your “I AM Presence”. And you call forth the energy of the Elixir of Life within you, calling forth the essence of peace, the essence of joy, the essence of Divine Perfection.

Knowing and experiencing your divine awareness knowing your presence on earth is one aspect of your infinite consciousness that you are a Powerful Instrument of God on earth you're a Powerful, Powerful, Powerful Instrument of God on earth simply knowing that as you move through your earthly life you are moving through what we call the infinite river of the flow of life delirious of to feel the presence of God breathing through you as you continue to breathe in what you call the Breath of Life, the breath of God's Love. You breathe in deeply and allow your attention to return to your Divine Perfection as you repeat to yourself, “I AM-That-I AM,” “I AM-That-I AM.”

And so, as you know and feel the presence and the power of the divinity of who you are, know that you are a beloved child of God and invoke the frequency of the Threefold Flame of activity within you. As you invoke the energy of all the flames, allowing the flame of the Elixir of Life, of the Supreme Light, of the Supreme Godhead to enter into your being. As you feel this power and you feel this presence of my Light, my Love returning to you, as you release and begin to heal your lower consciousness and you continue to repeat to yourself, I am that I am. I am the presence and the light of God.

“I AM-That-I AM,” “I AM-That-I AM.” As I release my physical body and return to the light, I release my etheric body and return to the light. I release my mental body and return to the light. I release my emotional body and return to the light. Now allowing my human consciousness to be free as I ascend into higher schools of learning and be transformed into God's perfection "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM."

As your "I AM Presence" lustily commands your lower human consciousness to release any physical, etheric, mental, and emotional disharmonic frequencies within you. As you return to the light, for know, dearest ones, you were created in light, in light you shall remain. You were created in love, and in love you shall remain. You were created in peace, and in peace you shall remain "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM."

And so, dear Son, it is I, Christ, I come with you, as always, as I stand before you in this Divine Perfection of who you truly are. As you are a beloved child of God, you are a beloved child of God, you are a beloved child of God. As you accept and acknowledge your "I AM Presence," that you are a beloved child of God, your disciple of the Holy Spirit, that you are a child of Most High.

Repeating and knowing that in the name of the Presence of the God Essence that you were resurrected into the Way, the Light and the Truth. And this frequency in which you ask truly is your birthright, the frequency in which you call forth as your mind, body and spirit are quickened and lifted into a state of enlightenment that clears your way for the fulfillment of the Divine Plan and the manifestation of your own Divine Soul pathway.

As you say to yourself, I'm one with All-That-Is, and I rejoice in this glorious truth. "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM," as I know I'm a beloved child of God. I've opened myself up to the gate of divine power within me. I thank you for the opportunities that allow me to feel the expression of my own soul. As I live this day in God's Light, the Light of God is always victorious. I live this day in God's Light.

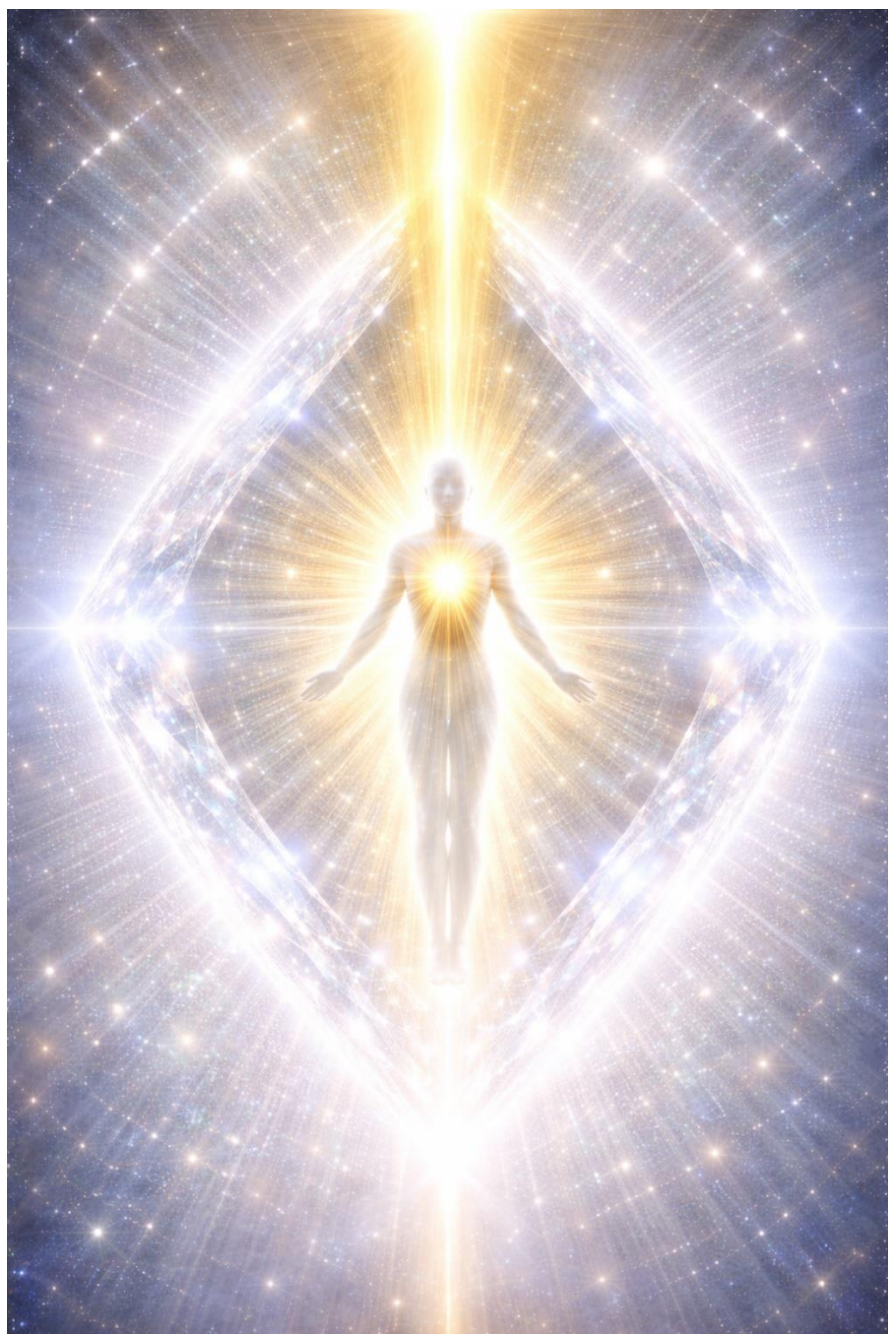

God is control whatever I am. I make this moment of mine be victorious as I know that I live in the Light of God. I love in the Light of God. I remain in peace in the Light of God. "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM," "I AM-That-I AM."

And now, Dear Son, go in peace and be still and know that you are God. Never question that which is flowing through you, the energy of my essence, the energy of God's Victorious Love and Light through you. You are a vessel and Instrument of God's Love, and this is truth. Remember this. Go forward in peace. Be still, be still, be still, and know that you are loved, and so, it is. And I seal these blessings with the Love of the Great Spirit within.

I AM Master Jesus

Chapter 16 - Christ Golden Light Activation

Lea Chapin channel Master Jesus 05/26/2025

Hi, Maurice, thank you again for referring your daughter. She was lovely. And thank you for your payment. And I will now begin to do your healing. Thank you. Father, mother, God, we call forth the highest frequency, the highest light for Maurice's soul growth. As always, Father, surround us with your love, light, healing, wisdom, and truth. As we invoke the energy of Jesus to step forward to bring his words of wisdom, healing, and guidance for this beloved soul, as we invoke the energy of Christ, healing energy, I call forth the Golden Flame of healing and the Golden Flame of love. And this we give our blessings, and so it is.

Greetings, Dear One. Yes, it is I, Christ. I come to you on this most auspicious day. I say to you, Dear One, that as you hold the beautiful Golden Flame of healing and the Golden Flame of love within your heart, may you allow yourself to receive this beautiful gift of protection as you come now into this beautiful anchoring and shielding of the Golden Light within your being.

So, if you so shall, may you begin to close your eyes and visualize your conscious awareness as a sphere of white light, bringing it into your body, anchoring it into your center, behind your navel, calling up the Golden Flame of love and allowing it now to enter into your heart as you continue to breathe. Simply imagine this beautiful flame anchoring through and around you, breathing into this center and visualizing the beautiful Golden Flame of love and healing coming into your heart chakra, allowing yourself to feel this energy.

It radiates the brightest light that you can imagine within your heart, and as you allow yourself to feel this energy as it moves through you and around you, expanding it out as far as you can see, you set yourself into this energy of protection. Feel the Golden Flame of light around your soul. Take a deep inhaling breath and know that this is an activation on a multidimensional level. As you open your heart to receive, all of your physical, energetic, and subtle bodies are illuminated into this Golden Flame of love and light. You become one with this energy, feeling it expand through you and around you, as above, so below.

The energy is illuminating within your cellular structure, within your auric field, within your light body, and within your Merkabah field. The Golden Light becomes a brilliant spinning field, expanding into your soul star chakra and surrounding you in a center of peace. As the energy spins more rapidly, it forms a Diamond Light Grid, creating a zero-point field within your being, bringing absolute stillness and alignment.

This unified field opens the gateway to your multidimensional self and unity consciousness, aligning all timelines in the here and now. Every cell, every fiber, every aspect of your being is infused with the Golden Flame of healing and love. You are a bridge between worlds, uplifting all dimensions through your presence as you awaken to this divine frequency.

Take a deep breath and know that I, Christ, am here, infusing the Golden Flame of love into every cell, atom, and particle of your being. Feel the presence of God's living light upon your soul. Feel the peace, the calmness, and the protection as the Golden Light surrounds you. Breathe in the Golden Flame of love and healing as it creates a Diamond force field around you.

You become a gateway to unity consciousness. As the masculine and feminine energies unite within you, they create a sacred field of oneness. This is the divine alchemy of holy union. Feel the love of God surround you, the power of God protect you, and the presence of God watch over you. The Golden Flame is the highest and purest frequency available to you now, bringing you into peace, balance, and alignment.

Call this energy from the soles of your feet, from the Earth Star Chakra, drawing it into your heart. See it as a radiant inner sun, expanding outward, clearing all lower vibrations and surrounding your aura with Golden Protective Light. Feel yourself safe, protected, and aligned with truth and divine grace.

Visualize Christ and Archangel Metatron standing behind you, radiating golden and diamond white light. Metatron raises his arms above you, opening a portal of light and placing a sphere of Golden and Diamond Light above your crown. As this light touches your crown, it activates your DNA, moving through your entire body and awakening your higher potential. The Golden Sphere is drawn around you like a cloak of protection, filling you with unity and oneness.

(Place Image Here: Christ above, golden beam, diamond light field surrounding the individual)

Know that you are a seed of pure love and divine energy. Your essence is the purest form of divinity. As you harmonize with this love, your outer experience begins to reflect your inner state. You are integrating all aspects of yourself into one unified field of love and consciousness.

Feel the healing power of Archangel Metatron as he stands above you, channeling Golden White Light into your being. This energy restores, heals, and aligns your soul. As your feet ground into the crystalline core of the Earth, you are connected as above, so below, receiving divine love and stability.

This is your awakening, your return to yourself. This is your ascension process, the merging of your divine essence with the Golden Flame of Christ. You are coming home to your true nature. Feel the love, the joy, and the infinite peace within you.

You may return to this state of oneness at any time. You are a bridge between worlds, carrying Christ's Cosmic Light Codes within you. These codes awaken the divine masculine and feminine energies, bringing balance, healing, and divine union within your being.

You are divine. You are divine. You are divine. Allow this truth to anchor deeply within you. The Golden Flame of Christ burns within your heart, guiding you into your ascension with ease, grace, and love. Go forward in peace, knowing that you are loved. And so it is.

Chapter 17 — The Christ Light

From as far back as I can remember, even as a young child, Jesus Christ has always been with me. Before I understood anything about healing, before I understood anything about Spirit, He was there. Through every moment of my life—through challenges, through uncertainty, through times when I did not know which way to go—He was the One guiding me. Even when I did not have the words for it, even when I could not explain what I was feeling, His presence was there.

He is the One who has guided me, the One who has worked through me, and the One who has channeled His healing energy through every healing session I have ever given. This is not something I learned. This is something I have lived. This is the truth of my being since the day I came into this world. There has always been a hand upon me—guiding, protecting, and directing my path.

And now I understand that this was not something that came later in life. This was a commitment—a sacred agreement made before I entered this world. It is a calling that I have walked in, step by step, whether I fully understood it at the time or not. I am a part of Him, and He is a part of me. Everything that I have shared in this book—every healing, every teaching, every experience—has come through that connection.

This is my life. This is my path. This is my truth. And it is with humility, gratitude, and love that I share it with you.

Chapter 18 — The Living I AM Presence

Channeled through Lea Chapin

March 14, 2026

Good morning, Maurice. Thank you for your payment, and I will begin. Father, Mother God, we call forth the highest frequency, the highest light for Maurice's soul growth. As always, Father, surround us with Your love, light, healing, wisdom, and truth as we invoke the energy of Master Jesus to step forward, to bring His words of wisdom, healing, and guidance to this beloved soul. And as always, Father, surround us with Your holy protection and grace. And this we give our blessings, and so it is.

Greetings, Dear One. Yes, it is I, Christ. I come to you on this most auspicious day. It is an honor to be with you and to now be a part of your own energetic frequencies that you are bringing forth into your book. It is an honor to have My frequency and My energy present within you. You are always deepening this connection with Me through your intention, and it is through these frequencies that you allow your heart to remain open and pure. As you call forth these frequencies, know that at each moment of time you are standing in the eternal love of All-That-Is. As you invoke your own energy of your "I AM Presence," you are invoking the living frequency within you.

Oh loving "I AM Presence," walk through me and open the door of understanding so I may become increasingly aware of the perfection of my own divine being. As I assist in bringing love and light to all people, awakening them to their own "I AM Presence," and as I grow in awareness, allow the consciousness, the wisdom, and the love to awaken through my book—the Living "I AM Presence" of my own Christ Consciousness. Allow my sense of gratitude to expand into graciousness, and allow this realization that my "I AM Presence" will spread its radiant light to everyone I meet, and to everyone who reads my book.

Thank you for the discovery that the consciousness of Divine Intelligence lives within each one. May the light of truth illuminate your mind and all minds as I, Christ, grow in greater awareness within the hearts of all souls. As I place My hand upon you and others, feel the energy of your own “I AM Presence.” I say to you that the Light is victorious, that you are the Light, that you are the Love, and that you are the Christ Consciousness. Know that you are one with All-That-Is, and rejoice in this glorious truth: “I AM THAT I AM.”

See yourself as a pulsating Being of Light moving through the flesh, rather than the flesh attempting to reach the Light. Know that you are the Light, that your body is Light, and that your mind is Light. “I AM That I AM. I AM the Presence of the Living God within me.” This realization will set you free as you begin to teach and instruct others how to invoke their own “I AM Presence,” for instantly your consciousness is raised above the human mind. You are not simply human—you are the “I AM Presence” of God Energy, and your consciousness expands as you place your attention upon the awareness of your true identity.

As you affirm within yourself that “I AM a Force of God moving upon this planet,” and that “I AM an upward radiating ray of consciousness,” you begin to feel the truth of your being. You come to know that “I AM a Being of Powerful Light,” and that “I AM one with all Light, the Great Universal Consciousness.” As this awareness deepens within you, you stand firmly in the knowing of “I AM That I AM.”

In the name of the Mighty Presence of God within you, and through the power blazing in every heart, I, Christ, invoke the Resurrection Flame and call forth all the Legions of Light associated with it. Through infinity, through the power of love and light, this Resurrection Flame spreads into every cell, atom, and electron of your being, and into the hearts and minds of all souls. Allow the Earth herself to feel this power of Resurrection, just as you are feeling it within your own being. For as you come forth with this victorious energy, you are an instrument of God, re-establishing divine perfection wherever this Flame is present.

As you say within yourself that “I AM the Flame of Resurrection in action,” and that “I AM a Director of the Resurrection Flame,” you come into a deeper humility before its magnificent presence. You recognize that “I AM an Instrument of God,” charging the electronic substance through and around you with the power and might of the Resurrection Flame, and in this realization you stand in the authority of “I AM That I AM.” You begin to feel that victory is yours, and that the power of divine life is flowing through you, restoring, renewing, and uplifting all that you are.

The perfect balance of your Father-Mother-God Presence has returned upon the Earth, and your “I AM Presence” now awaits the opportunity to take full dominion over your thoughts, your words, your actions, and your feelings. With this inner knowing, you begin to understand the responsibility of becoming the full manifestation of your “I AM Presence” while still embodied on Earth. This means allowing this Presence to integrate into every aspect of your being.

This integration is occurring now at the atomic and cellular level. Every atom, every electron, every particle of your being is being re-established into the higher frequency of Light. As this occurs, your thoughts, your words, your feelings, and your actions begin to reflect the harmony and balance of the Divine. Your physical reality is transformed into the perfection of your “I AM Presence,” and you are given the opportunity to continue your ascension in full awareness of who you truly are.

As you allow the energy of the Ascension Flame to come forth within you, know that you are the power you have been waiting for. You are the Ascension Flame, and you are an Instrument of God. As you also invoke the Violet Flame of Transmutation, calling it forth from the depths of your heart, you begin to feel its purifying power moving through every aspect of your being. As you call forth, “Transmute, transmute, transmute by the Violet Fire, all causes and cores not of God’s desire,” you are actively transforming your world and your consciousness.

You are a Being of Love, and love you shall remain. You are a Being of Light, and light you shall remain. You are a Being of Joy, and joy you shall remain. As you affirm within yourself that “I AM Divine Love,” “I AM Infinite Abundance,” and “I AM the harmony of my true being,” you begin to embody these truths in your daily life. You recognize that you are vitally healthy, eternally youthful, and a peace-commanding presence, and that every action you take improves not only your life, but the lives of those around you and the world itself.

And now, dearest son, know that I am with you always. There is no reason to fear, no reason to question, and no reason to feel less than. You are the Mighty “I AM.” As you write your book, you are helping others to reclaim the Flame of Life within them—the Vital Life Force of the God Essence. Through your words and your presence, you are bringing restoration, renewal, and divine remembrance to all who encounter your work.

May you truly feel the Love of God surround you. May you truly feel the Power of God within you. May you truly feel the Peace of God upon your soul. “I AM That I AM.” Trust and believe within yourself, for there is great love within your heart, and there is nothing to fear. You are in the Divine Presence of your own “I AM Presence,” and in this truth you are held, guided, and uplifted.

Never question yourself, for you are the perfection of God. Your life responds instantly to divine love, and through your Heart Flame your body is refined and filled with Light. Your Heart Flame expresses love and awakens you to the voice of your “I AM Presence.” You are the divine child of great love and great peace.

Be still... be still... be still... and know that you are loved. Loved beyond measure and beyond comprehension. Be still and know that “I AM God.” You are God, we are God, and all are God—the Divine Essence of the Great Creator.

Go in peace. And so it is.

A sacred transmission of the Christ Light, awakening the reader to the living power of the “I AM Presence” within. This chapter is not only to be read—but to be felt, experienced, and realized as the Divine Identity of God in action through every soul.

Closing Statement

This is not the end of my journey—it is only the beginning.

I walk forward in the Light, guided by the Presence within me, knowing that what has been revealed is only the first unfolding of a greater truth yet to come.

I am Maurice Ramsey, a servant of the Light, and I remain open, willing, and devoted to the Divine path that continues to reveal itself through me.

And so, the journey continues.

With Love I Serve,
I AM Rev. Maurice Ramsey
